Welcome!

For more than 150 years, the Michigan State Medical Society (MSMS) has offered continuing medical education courses in both clinical education and practice transformation for members in all levels of their careers. The MSMS Foundation presents courses for members, their office staff, and executive leaders in health care. This year, along with some of the staples in our educational programming, we will continue to offer one day conferences that cover the new medical licensure requirements. We also have on-demand webinars focusing on these requirements.

Please note that each course in our course catalog is color coded based on the area of content. A complete color-key is shown below.

For course information, including conference topics and speakers, and to register online please visit us at http://msms.org/eo or contact us directly at 517-336-5789.
